Aqimero to Extend Pop-Up Rosé Garden

As a result of the restaurant's success with its first-ever pop-up, Aqimero will be extending the Rosé Garden through the end of August 2022

PHILADELPHIA, July 14, 2022 – Aqimero, the Latin-inspired restaurant by Chef Richard Sandoval in Philadelphia, has announced that due to popular demand, it will extend its summer indoor pop-up Rosé Garden until August 28, 2022.

In addition to the extension, beginning August 1, the Rosé Garden will shift its hours of operation, and will be open Fridays and Saturdays from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m., and Sundays 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

"We are thrilled by the response to the Rosé Garden, and are excited to build upon its initial success and extend the pop-up through the summer," said Richard Sandoval, world-renowned chef, restaurateur and owner of Richard Sandoval Hospitality. "We intended for the space to serve as an escape from the ordinary to the seaside of Mexico's Baja Coast, and are ecstatic to see how Philadelphia has, and continues to embrace the Rosé Garden as a summer destination."

The Rosé Garden is a multisensory experience that transports guests to the Baja Coast as they sit underneath a canopy of bougainvillea enjoying rosé-inspired beverages and Latin-centric light bites exclusive to the pop-up.

Reservations for the pop-up Rosé Garden are available on Aqimero's website and OpenTable.
